

Homework for JS1

1. Create an Array of names of people in the class and call this variable hYF06.
2. Insert all the names of your class. This should be both first name and last name.
3. Print all the names
4. You will then create a random pair from the Array and print the names on the pair. You should output the names on index.html. Hint :use Math.random() function